

School Expansion Update Edition 8

29th November 2019

As previously stated when we commenced our updates, there may be some weeks where there is little new information to report. This is one of those weeks, as it is more of the same. Ground levelling works continue and activity is moving towards the far end of the field.

More to follow next week.

Best wishes
Sam Porter